Katja G. Kempe Honored With The “Excellence In Education” Award At GFEL Las Vegas, 2020–21

 GFEL Events Jul 27 · 2 min read

Las Vegas, Nevada — June 28, 2021 — Katja G. Kempe was conferred with the “Excellence In Education” award for her remarkable contributions to the education industry at the second edition of The Global Forum for Education and Learning (GFEL), held at the MGM Grand, Las Vegas, USA on June 23–25, 2021.

Katja is the CEO and Founder of Viveka, a global B2C2B SaaS platform for professional and personal development. Winner of Female Entrepreneur Of The Year — Asia-Pacific, Katja is a multi-pitch award winner and was nominated as one of the '21 Top Founders To Change The Way We Do Business In 2021' by Yahoo Finance, alongside Elon Musk and the founders of Stripe, Bumble, and Canva. Her company’s vision is to bring transformational learning experiences to billions by giving companies and individuals access to vetted experts and technology services for a seamless coaching experience. Before Viveka, Katja worked as a Strategy Manager and then COO of leading law firms.

Her trailblazing endeavors and her noble dedication to driving change in society through transformational learning led to her nomination and ultimately, to her selection for the prestigious honor.

When asked about her experience at GFEL, she said, “It’s a true honor and a privilege to be an award winner. It’s been an amazing experience. I found amazing caliber in the people of the education industry and the conference was informative and had a fantastic audience.”

GFEL, a brand owned by Prism Events, Inc. is a three-day international education conference that promotes networking, knowledge sharing and recognizes the industry-leading work of visionary individuals and organizations. After the successful conclusion of its second edition, we seek to empower education experts by building and expanding our presence in the Asia-Pacific and MENA regions.
